Japanese Whisky

Nikka Distilleries

25ml 50ml

Nikka currently operates two distilleries for their Japanese Whisky production, Yoichi distillery established in 1934 and Miyagikyo distillery in 1969. It was Masataka Taketsuru who founded the company after studying the art of distilling whisky in Scotland. Many consider Masataka to be the father of Japanese Whisky.

Kaiyō

25ml 50ml

Although Osaka based Kaiyō does not market themselves as a Japanese Whisky they certainly belong on our shelves. Their whiskies are created from malt distilled in Japan, but they spend part of their Mizunara oak aging on a journey across the sea. The natural movement of the sea allows for the ultimate cask liquid contact. The temperature and pressure changes help creating a unusual yet unique line of whiskies.

Finish Whisky

Kyrö Distillery Company

The idea for Kyrö Distillery Company, an all-rye distillery from Finland, was born in a classic Finnish way – with a group of friends enjoying a sauna and drinking rye whisky. The taste profile of Kyrö Malt is characterized by its unique aromatic notes of vanilla, caramel, dried fruits, and earthy rye. On the palate, you will taste sweet rye bread, honey, and wild berries with a peppery finish smoothed with mocha and caramel. The quality of this whiskey is further evidenced by an award of 98/100 points and an outstanding medal from the International Wine and Spirits Competition 2020.
